

Music in the Asylum Grounds.—The Burwood band performed in the Asylum Grounds yesterday afternoon, under the direction of the bandmaster (Mr. J. M. Gates). A considerable number of the townspeople were present. The programme comprised:—Part 1. Grand March (Callen), Italian Campaign Quadrille (C. D. Albert), Grand Aria from Op. Czar & Zimmerman, Quick March, "Alice Grey" (Carey). Part 2. Grand selections from the Bohemian Girl (Balfe) Pride of North Waltzes (J. M. Gates), The jolly Dogs March (W. Cork), Matilda Scottische (Labitsky), The All Nations Gallop (Julien). God save the Queen. In connection with this musical festival a letter appears in another column.
